

Disney Princess Party checklist

Start with a parade, end with a coronation, and give everyone the royal treatment in between. Whether your young princesses show up in full regalia or get dressed up as part of the party, this celebration is all about spoiling Her Highness and her young-ladies-in-waiting.

Favors

Every little girl has her favorite Princess, so pick up Disney Princess treat bags. Inside, princesses will find sparkly lip gloss, pens, play figures, jewelry and stickers.

Wand wonders

The day before the party, make a pan of rice-crispy treats. When the princesses gather, you're ready to start an edible-wand-making assembly line. First, let each choose a plastic cookie cutter to cut out a rice crispy shape for the top of the wand. Insert a candy stick and use frosting to add M&M "jewels." Eat right away or send them home with the guests.
